

I urge you to reject the NAB's petition 04-160 because if you want to see improvement accross the board in radio listening then you cannot stifle competition. If the large local radio owners (Cumulus, Clear Channel) don't want to loose listeners to sattelite radio (XM, Sirius) then they should improve their programming, not keep the sattelite radio companies from broadcasting certain programs.